SPECIAL guests attended the finale of the third International Fashion Incubators conference at the Parmelia Hilton.

During the conference, up and coming designers were given the opportunity to hear guest speakers share their insider secrets and tips for making it big in the fashion industry.

Special guests included global fashion executives from over 20 countries including the UK, Nigeria, Indonesia and Canada were all in Perth for the style conference.

The Fashion Incubator initiative helps to support young talent by gaining business knowledge and global exposure for their brands.

During the finale gala at the Hilton local labels Breathless, Leanne Lim and Betty Sugar were among those showcased during a fashion parade.

Spotted were Sylvia Giacci, Carol Hanlon and Susan Langdon.
