Last call for India buying mission

TCFWA / TCF Australia & Belmont BEC has issued a final "last chance" call out for its TCF Australia Buying Mission to India next month.

The industry program is hosting a Buying Mission to India International Handwoven Fair, Chennai, India from 27 to 29 March 2012 on behalf of the Handloom Export Promotion Council for Indian handwoven textiles.

The event will showcase the best handwoven textiles in quality and design from quality hand loom clusters from across India.

"At this unique fair internationally acclaimed handwoven creations from Indian manufacturers and exporters showcasing: embroidered textile materials, wall hangings, shawls, bed sheets, table, kitchen and bath linen, floor coverings, towels, cushions, throws, curtains will all be on display."

Eligible buyers will receive sponsored airline flights and accommodation during the show. Firms approved for sponsorship will be notified in writing. They will then be asked to supply a best price economy airfare quote for approval by India International Handwoven Fair and will be issued with a written Invitation to the event which should then be taken to the Indian Embassy for application to apply for a business visa, in cases where attendees do not hold a current valid Indian visa.
