

FREE Business Seminars to Survive & Grow In the TCF Industry

Fashion and creative industries require various modes of business training & development that suit their preferred learning style and their business. Their needs are about to be met!

Via the Government's WIIN Project, TCFWA will be running some FREE groundbreaking seminars across Australia in the coming week for the fashion, textile, footwear, leather and clothing industry. The seminars will be particularly pertinent for those wishing to improve their business or expand. The workshop series is supported by Enterprise Connect, TCFWA, Belmont BEC, and designedge fashion incubator.

The presenter for the seminars will be Philip Levy, from Peterson Levy & Associates. Philip's background and expertise comes directly from the TCF Industry as he established Stubbies Clothing in 1972, a true Australian export icon. Through his innovation and insight, Philip developed a successful international consultancy. He now has an extensive and impressive list of clients around the globe.

The seminar series will be in Brisbane Oct 14th, Sydney 19th October and Melbourne 21st October

Topics include:

About Us - TCFWA

The Textile, Clothing and Footwear Resource Centre of Western Australia Inc (TCFWA) provide a valuable resource for the design industry. Since being established in 1998, the centre has been so successful, that it now receives requests from across Australia and overseas, from organisations and designers wishing to be involved.

Providing business skills and industry mentoring, a helpline service and development of specialised industry workshops to better equip those operating in the industry is one of the main areas that TCFWA has been recognised as a leader and role model organisation across Australia an overseas.
